Whitetop Mountain Band to Perform in Backstreet Park!

—Submitted by Karen Moll, Friends of Ashe Publid Library

Join the West Jefferson Community Partnership (WJCP) as the Summer Concert Series continues with the music of Whitetop Mountain Band Friday, June 27, 5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m., in the Backstreet Park in West Jefferson.

The 2025Summer Concert Series is in its 14th year of providing music from several genres, sharing a little something for everyone. All concerts are free and open to the public. (In the event of rain, concerts will be held at the Ashe County Farmers Market down the street.)

The Whitetop Mountain Band is a family-based band from the highest mountains of Virginia. Whitetop, VA, is an area rich in the old time music tradition; this band has deep roots in mountain music. The members have done much to preserve the Whitetop region's style of old-time fiddling and banjo picking and are legendary musicians and teachers of the style. The band is currently led by Emily Spencer, who was a founding member of the group in the 1970s. Band members are Kilby Spencer on fid-

Museum of History

ry has several exhibits of Ashe County and the mountains. Seen here
b Copper Mine exhibit.

Local historian Chad Bogart teaches the public about life in Ashe County during World War II during a 1940s living history program held at the Museum of Ashe County History.

The Museum of Ashe County History is located in Ashe County's historic 1904 courthouse and is located at 301 East Main Street in Jefferson, NC. This ca. 1910 photograph shows the building when it was still being used as a courthouse. The county moved out of this building in 2001, and soon after, a massive restoration of the building's downstairs began.
