This Weekend— West Jefferson's 8th Annual Olde Time Antiques Fair

The coolness of Fall is still a few days away, but there's a certain feel, a certain smell, a certain quiet noise and of course a number on a calendar that tells us it's just around the corner. And so is West Jefferson's Olde Time Antiques Fair. Don't miss this MUST DO show!

Located right in the middle of historic downtown West Jefferson, in the heart of the town's antiques, arts and restaurant district. This 8th Annual antiques street fair is open to the public and has everything from quality antiques, primitives, collectibles, advertising items, old toys, knives, coins and watches to funnel cakes, hot dogs, corn dogs and lots of other fair food.

Admission is free and the show goes on rain or shine! Bring an umbrella (or buy one at a local shop). Hours are 1-8 on Friday, Sept. 20, and 8-5 on Saturday, Sept. 21.

"The fair continues to grow and this year we have more vendors than we've ever had," original fair organizer Keith Woodie said last week. Woodie is also owner of Antiques on Main in West Jefferson and Antiques Main in Blowing Rock, NC. "We encourage everyone to walk around the town and visit our various retail shops and galleries, and sample our local food."

Our music line-up for this year includes Stewart Chapman as Elvis from 4-5:30 on Friday evening and the Lucky Strikes Band from 6-8 pm. On Saturday, we have the BackPorch Bluegrass Band from 11 am-noon on Saturday and the Cabin Creek Bluegrass Band from 12:30-1:30 pm.

Sponsors for this year's event include Antiques on Main; Ashe County Cheese; Blue Ridge Energy; Dr. Timothy Rector, DDS; HoleLotta Doughnuts; Hotel Tavern; John Reeves Antiques; LifeStore Bank; Maurice Jordan Barnwood; Perry's Gold Mine; Skyline/Skybest; Smoky Mountain Barbecue and the West Jefferson Business Association.

"The focus of the Antiques Fair is strictly on quality antiques and collectibles — this is not a flea market type event," Woodie said. "If you enjoy antiques, you won't want to miss it!"
